

theguardian

News | Sport | Comment | Culture | Business | Money | Life & style

News > Technology > Best iPhone and iPad apps

Series: Best iPhone and iPad apps

20 best iPhone and iPad apps this week

Tynker Premium, Acomplii, Third Eye Crime, Leo's Fortune, Babylon Health, Wayward Souls and more

Stuart Dredge

theguardian.com, Monday 28 April 2014 16.00 BST

 Jump to comments (0)

Fubar Radio (Free + IAP)

Richard Herring and Sean Hughes are among the comedians available through "the UK's first uncensored national radio network", which now has an official iOS app. The app – which includes voting and other features to respond to broadcasters – provides a one-month trial, then you'll be prompted to sign up for a £2.99 monthly subscription.

iPhone

Montessori Maths: Multiplication (£2.49)

Developer Les Trois Elles has released a succession of neat maths apps for children on iOS, based on Montessori educational principles. This latest one is all about multiplication, with a mixture of mini-games and playful features aimed at 6-10 year-olds practising their maths skills.

iPhone / iPad

LifeSkills created with Barclays (Free)

Finally, something from Barclays Bank: an app aimed at 11-19 year-olds trying to polish up their recruitability. It's split into three sections: work skills, people skills and money skills, and ties into an existing program for schools based around getting students into suitable work experience.

iPhone / iPad